ON THE VERGE: Teen Choreographer's Showcase

6 week program starting April 11th 2010

Final Showcase at

The Marjorie Luke Theatre on Saturday, May 22nd 2010

A dance choreography workshop for teen choreographers and dancers ages 13-19

- Mentorship: Provides first-hand production experience guided by a dance community mentor (We can match you with a mentor or you can choose your own pending SBDA approval)
- Multi-level training workshops: (segmented for first year, second year, & third year students) taught by local professionals focusing on all aspects of choreography and stage production
- Outreach activities: teens present their pieces at various youth organizations and senior centers and donating tickets
- Final showcase at the Marjorie Luke Theatre open to the public
- Unique program combines creative technical training not found in any other local program or school ending with a professional level staged production produced by SBDA.
- Scholarships available to teens in need of financial assistance upon request
